Woven Flower Cube

Morning glory pinwheel

Blue bell-shaped flowers seem to whirl on the four panels of the cube. Based on a traditional Japanese family crest, the flowers are constructed of blue and green veneer against a natural maple veneer background. Pattern adapted by furniture maker Michael McCallister.

Cube is constructed of solid maple along with a maple veneer panel with dyed poplar inlay. Beveled frames around artwork reflect light and cast shadows that create a sense of depth. Finished in clear lacquer or optional hand-rubbed, organic oil.

Makes a perfect end or side table as well as a sturdy storage unit and comfortable seat. A distinctive addition to any living room, bedroom, den, family room or home office. This piece is fitted with a mechanical closer to make it safe for children's use.
